POLICIES, TERMS & CONDITIONS

- We offer a "Ladies Only" environment, so please don't bring your partner or children to class.
- Some pole dancing moves can be more challenging & / or dangerous than others. We must insist that our instructions are followed at all times during class.
- If you are unable to attend your regular class, Purely Pole DOES NOT offer substitute classes, and any missed classes will be forfeited. In the event that management is advised in advance of your inability to attend, we MAY offer an alternative timeslot, but this is subject to availability and must be taken within the same course. Substitute classes will not be carried over to future courses, and if a suitable substitute time is not found, any classes missed will be forfeited.
- Purely Pole Studio, does not offer refunds or credits at any time. In exceptional circumstances management may (at their discretion) offer a credit. This should be taken up with Purely Pole Management.
- Purely Pole reserves the right to change or cancel a course up to and including the date of the course if insufficient bookings have been received. In the event of a class or course being altered or cancelled every effort will be made to avoid inconvenience by offering alternative dates or times.
- You must be over the age of 18 years to participate (16 years with parental consent).
- You will not be permitted to participate whilst intoxicated or under the influence of drugs.
- You are using the dance pole and participating in the class at your own risk – no responsibility will be accepted by Purely Pole Studio, their Staff, Distributors, Agents, Manufacturers or property owners for any damage or injury caused whilst participating in this class.
- Purely Pole does not recommend pole dancing lessons for pregnant women. In the event of an unexpected pregnancy, you may cancel your membership upon payment of the cancellation fee.
- When undertaking any new form of exercise, you should consult your doctor/health professional first.
